Course Prerequisites:
Ukrainian 30 (or equivalent matriculation standing) or UKR 112, or consent of the Department.

Note: UKR 211 and 212 will satisfy the Language Other than English (LOE) requirement. Students with credit in UKR 150, 202, 204, or students with proficiency at this level are NOT permitted to take UKR 212.

There are many students with Ukrainian 30 whose level of competence is very high and who qualify for UKR 303 or a higher-level course. MLCS reserves the right to transfer such students to courses at the 300 or 400 level, or to cancel the registration. This is done to create a level playing field for all studying the language.

Course Prerequisites:
Course-based Ethics Approval in place regarding all research projects that involve human testing, questionnaires, etc. √ No, not needed, no such projects approved

Community Service Learning component: None
Past or Representative Evaluative Course Material available at Exam registry, Students’ Union. http://www.su.ualberta.ca/services/infolink/exam/
Moreover, sample materials will be available on e-class.
Additional mandatory Instructional fees (approved by Board of Governors) √ No

Course Description and Objectives:
Contemporary language and culture as practiced by Ukrainians in Ukraine and in various diasporic communities. A variety of authentic texts and media sources serve to further develop proficiency in spoken and written Ukrainian with a focus on intercultural communicative competence.

Students meet three hours per week (MWF), but are expected to devote at least one additional hour reading online magazines, watching Ukrainian television or listening to podcasts, radio, and/or music in Ukrainian, while keeping a detailed log of these activities and sharing it with classmates. Details pertaining to these activities will be posted on e-class.

By the end of this class, students will have completed Lessons 5-10 of the Yabluko textbook. Successful students will be able to:
- express themselves more effectively in predictable social transactions
- accurately use basic grammatical structures and common vocabulary in speech and writing
- write short essays
- demonstrate awareness of and cultural sensitivity to the Ukrainian language
- to converse in general terms about current events in the world of culture and politics.

Students who successfully complete the UKR 211-212 sequence qualify to take UKR 300, Ukrainian through its Living Culture I, which is held during Intersession in the capital of Western Ukraine, L'viv.

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

Attendance and participation: After the add/drop deadline, three or more unexcused absences from class will result in the lowering of the final grade. It is essential to come to class well prepared and to participate fully in class discussions.

Homework: Each student will receive a grade, when appropriate, for homework. Students are responsible for making up work that is missed due to excused absence. The work to be made up must be handed in the day the student returns to class. Written homework will be collected at the beginning of class.

No books, notes, etc. will be permitted during any test or surprise quiz.

Weekly Media Discussions on e-class: Every week you will be assigned to watch a Ukrainian commercial or a brief news report or a short segment of a TV show; then you will be required to write 3-4 sentences about the piece. (Details on e-class).
Required Notes:
“Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.”

Academic Integrity:
“The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to familiarize with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at www.governance.ualberta.ca) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.”

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:
• Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
• If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Academic Honesty:
All students should consult the information provided by the Student Conduct & Accountability Office regarding avoiding cheating and plagiarism in particular and academic dishonesty in general (see the Academic Integrity Undergraduate Handbook and Information for Students). If in doubt about what is permitted in this class, ask the instructor.

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that on-line “translation engines” produce very dubious and unreliable “translations.” Students in languages courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of “cheating” that violates the code of student conduct with dire consequences.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Recording of Lectures:
Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

In this course attendance will be taken at every class meeting. Unexcused absences will adversely affect the student’s grade. Tardiness is counted as an unexcused absence.
Note: Every class each student will be assigned a grade (0%-100%) for class participation and preparation for class. Written homework will be graded according to the same scale.

Policy for Late Assignments:
Students who consult in advance with the instructor regarding contingencies that prevent the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension. Otherwise, assignments may be handed in with a 5%-per-class penalty assessed for each tardy written homework assignment. More than 2 instances of tardy homework will NOT be accepted.

Student Accessibility Services:
If you have special needs that could affect your performance in this class, please let me know during the first week of the term so that appropriate arrangements can be made. If you are not already registered with Student Accessibility Services, contact their office immediately (1-80 SUB; Email sasrec@ualberta.ca; Email; phone 780-492-3381).

Grading:
Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on “a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class” (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that “a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned” (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

> “Are you cold? Think of those who sleep in the trenches.”
