Course Description:

This course will explore critical perspectives on gender, with an emphasis on the Canadian context. We will examine a variety of sociological approaches to the study of gendered behaviours, structures, and institutions. Different theoretical perspectives will be drawn upon in order to better understand gender roles and how these roles develop and change over time. Throughout the course we will explore how the effects of gender intersect with race, class, and sexuality.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Understand some of the ways that gender is produced through social forces and institutions
2. Recognize how we ‘do gender’ in a variety of different ways through our interactions with other people
3. Develop skills in oral and written communication
4. Understand a variety of sociological approaches to the study of gender
5. Apply a gender analysis to contemporary social issues

COURSE EVALUATION:

5% Pop Quizzes
Short quizzes will be held during class. The dates will not be announced in advance and you will need to be present in class to complete them.

5% Discussion Forum Posts
You are expected to post on the eClass discussion forums. These posts need to be consistent with the guidelines posted on the forum (e.g. be respectful of others, no personal attacks). These can be critical responses to the readings or discussion of current events, etc. As a guideline, I suggest 5-7 posts throughout the course, depending on length.

25% Photo Essay Project – Due March 6
For this assignment, you will create a digital photo essay of gender in everyday life. The assignment requires taking photographs of yourself or other people “doing gender”, or challenging or “undoing” gender (suggested number of photographs: 6-8), and writing an essay-format response for each photograph that explains what is happening. Detailed instructions for this assignment will be posted on eClass and discussed in class.

15% Midterm Exam – February 27 (in class)
The midterm will be held in class on February 27 and will cover material from the first half of the course. Representative exam questions will be discussed in class and posted on eClass. Missed midterm exams will require documentation and will be scheduled in the week following the original midterm date.

25% Intersectional Approaches to Social Issues Project – Due April 12
For this project, you will identify a social problem or issue and explore possibilities for addressing it through critical analysis of readings from the course. You must apply an intersectional lens to your analysis of the problem/issue (see chapter 7 in the textbook). Suggested length: 5-7 pages. Detailed instructions for this assignment will be posted on eClass and discussed in class.

25% Final Exam
The final exam will be held during the exam period. The final exam will cover material from the entire course, but will focus on the second half. Representative exam questions will be discussed in class and posted on eClass.

Policy for Late Assignments
Late papers will be marked down 5% percent for each day past the deadline, and will not be accepted after one week past the deadline. Please contact me in advance if you will have difficulty meeting a deadline for health or personal reasons.

If a student fails to write the final exam, he or she must formally apply to his or her Faculty within two working days following the missed exam in order to be considered for a deferral. The date for the Sociology department deferred exams is Saturday, May 5, 2018 at 9:00am, location BUS 1-10. The decision to grant a deferred final exam is not the instructor's. Deferred examinations are intended to accommodate students who have experienced an incapacitating illness or severe domestic affliction; applications based on minor or inconsequential ailments will not be approved. Please also note that as stated in the Calendar, “a deferred examination will not be approved if a student (a) has not been in regular attendance where attendance and/or participation are required, and/or, (b) excluding the final exam, has completed less than half of the assigned work.”

Required Notes
“Policy about course outlines can be found in Course Requirements, Evaluation Procedures and Grading of the University Calendar.”

Academic Integrity
“The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at http://www.governance.ualberta.ca/en/CodesofConductandResidenceCommunityStandar ds/CodeofStudentBehaviour.aspx) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.”

Learning and working environment
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring that all students, faculty and staff are able to work and study in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern;
- or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Academic Honesty
All students should consult the information provided by Student Conduct and Accountability regarding avoiding cheating and plagiarism in particular and academic dishonesty in general (see the Academic Integrity Undergraduate Handbook and Information for Students). If in doubt about what is permitted in this class, ask the instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Recording of Lectures
“Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).”

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult the Calendar regarding Attendance and Examinations sections of the University
Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the "attendance and participation" component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Student Accessibility Services

If you have special needs that could affect your performance in this class, please let me know during the first week of the term so that appropriate arrangements can be made. If you are not already registered with Student Accessibility Services, contact their office immediately (1-80 SUB; Email sasrec@ualberta.ca; Email; phone 780-492-3381).
